

January Teen Activities

Holiday Gaming Days will be held on Friday, January 2 from 1 - 4 PM. Take this opportunity to get out of the house and play! Open to all ages and experience levels.

High School Chess—Bring a friend to the Huron Public Library and enjoy a game of chess on Wednesday, January 7 from 6 - 8 PM. Chess boards are available at the library.

The Teen Library Council will meet Saturday, January 10 from 2:30 - 3:30 PM for grades 5 - 7, and from 3:30 - 4:30 PM for grades 8 - 12. For more information, e-mail huronlibrary.org or call 419-433-5009.

Join BōcLeague (grades 5 - 12) on Wednesday, January 14 from 6 - 7 PM for dessert and discussion of Storm Catchers by Carnegie Medal winner, Tim Bowler. Try this thrilling mystery filled with suspense. Call 419-433-5009 or e-mail huron@huronlibrary.org to register by January 4.

Thursday Night Theater is on Thursday, January 15 at 6 PM. This month's movie, Swing Vote, finds Bud Johnson, an apathetic, beer slinging, lovable loser just coasting through life. When his precocious, over achieving twelve-year old daughter, Molly, accidentally sets off a chain of events, it culminates in the presidential election coming down to Bud's vote. This movie has been rated PG-13 by the MPAA and will run 120 minutes. Refreshments will be available for a nominal fee from 5:30 to 6:30 PM.

January Adult Activities

The History of Huron Railroads will be presented by Dennis Brandal from the Mad River & NKP Railroad Society in Bellevue on Wednesday, January 7 at 7 PM. Mr. Brandal will relate historical accounts of area railroads and the employees who operated them. He will also bring an exhibit of railroad memorabilia. This program for adults and teens (5th grade and up) is free but space is limited so call the library at 419-433-5009 or e-mail huron@huronlibrary.org to register.

The Book Exchange will meet on Tuesday, January 13 at 7 PM and discuss The Five People You Meet in Heaven by Mitch Albom.

Eddie, an 83-year-old, wounded war veteran, feels he has lived an uninspired life. Then while working fixing rides at a seaside amusement park, a tragic accident kills him as he is trying to save a little girl from a falling cart. It is then that he learns that heaven is not a destination, but rather, a place where your life is explained to you by five people. E-mail us at huron@huronlibrary.org or call 419-433-5009 for details!

Ohio's Presidential Heyday The Huron Public Library is sponsoring a speaker's luncheon on Friday, January 16 at noon. Joining us will be Tom Culbertson, Director of the Rutherford B. Hayes Presidential Center. He will discuss the presidents who came from Ohio, their elections and their presidencies. Bring a bag lunch, and we will provide a beverage and dessert. This adult program is free but space is limited so call 419-433-5009 or e-mail huron@huronlibrary.org by January 15 to register.

Mystery Book Group will meet on Wednesday, January 21, at 7 PM and discuss Richard Stark's book Dirty Money. Criminal Parker and two cohorts robbed a bank but had to hide the money to make good their escape from the police. Now Parker and his associates have to reclaim the loot without getting caught. E-mail us at huron@huronlibrary.org or call 419-433-5009 for details!

Ladies Night Out on Thursday, January 22 at 6 PM. Bring a friend to the library for the musical, Mamma Mia. On the eve of her wedding, a daughter's quest to discover the identity of her father brings three men from her mother's past back to the Greek island paradise they last visited 20 years ago. For more information call 419-433-5009 or e-mail huron@huronlibrary.org.

Basic Computing Classes will be held on Wednesdays, January 28 and February 4 from 6 - 8 PM. In this two-part, hands-on series for beginners, you will learn the basics about computers, the Internet and e-mail. These free classes are for adults. Space is limited, so call 419-433-5009 to register.

The Friends of the Library invite you to join them on Wednesday, January 28 at 7 PM for an evening of discussion with the authors of Sail Away. Don and Lois Babson will guide you along on their trip of a lifetime around the world on their forty-foot sailboat, Que Sera Sera. For more information, call 419-433-5009 or e-mail huron@huronlibrary.org.
